

SPEAKERS PROFILE

1st Oculoplastic Interest Group Meeting 2018

MITIN Conference Center, Level 18, Faber Tower 1, Taman Desa, Kuala Lumpur

1. Dr Kamala Devi D/OS D Lingam

Consultant Ophthalmologist and Oculoplastic Surgeon
International Specialist Eye Center (ISEC), Midvalley,
Visiting Consultant: University Malaya Medical Centre (UMMC); Southern Specialist Eye Center (SSEC), Melaka; KL Eye Specialist; Sunway Hospital

As one of the most senior oculoplastic surgeons in Malaysia, Dr. Kamala received her subspecialty training in Nottingham, UK in 1997 and had served in MOH for many years. She has been instrumental in starting the oculoplastic services in Hospital Kuala Lumpur, Melaka and University Hospital. She is also a founding member of APSOPRS (Asia Pacific Society of Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery).

2. Dr. Radzlian Bin Othman

Consultant Ophthalmologist and Oculoplastic Surgeon
Hospital Serdang

He received his oculoplastic training in England at the Queen Elizabeth Hospital, the Norfolk and Norwich University Hospital and the Addenbrooke's Hospital Cambridge. He was previously Head of Oculoplastic Subspecialty service in the MOH. He now serves as member of the MOH Ophthalmology Subspecialty training committee. He was instrumental in establishing the Oculoplastic service in Hospital Serdang, which is now National Oculoplastic Centre of Excellence. Currently, he is actively training fellows in the Oculoplastic Subspecialty.

3. Dr Hamidah Budin

Consultant Ophthalmologist and Oculoplastic Surgeon
KPJ Tawakkal Specialist Hospital, Kuala Lumpur.

Dr Hamidah received her subspecialty training in Orbit and Oculoplastic Surgery at Ain Syam University and National Eye Hospital Cairo, Egypt. She has been actively involved in Oculoplastic Subspecialty fellowship training and is an examiner for MOH Oculoplastic Subspecialty Exit Exams.

4. Dr Zurina Zainal Abidin

Consultant Ophthalmologist and Oculoplastic Surgeon
Kpj Klang Specialist
Hospital, KPJ Center For Sight, Petaling Jaya

Dr Zurina received her subspecialty training in Sydney Eye Hospital and had previously served as a lecturer in UMMC. She is one of the first few recipients of receiving the Certificate of Completion in Fellowship Training (CCFT) conducted by MOH. She is a member of Asia Pacific Society of Ophthalmic Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery.

5. Dr Alice Goh Siew Ching

Consultant Ophthalmologist and Oculoplastic Surgeon

International Specialist Eye Center (ISEC), Midvalley,

Visiting ConsultantL. ISEC Penang and Southern Specialist Eye Center (SSEC), Melaka

Dr Goh received oculoplastic training in multiple places, including world renowned Jules Stein Eye Institute, UCLA, Los Angeles, USA, Samsung Medical Centre, Seoul, Korea, LV Prasad Eye Institute, Hyderabad, India and Hospital Serdang. She received MOH Fellowship Scholarship, ICO Scholarship and David Leveton UCLA Scholarship. She has published papers in aesthetics and various oculoplastic topics in peer reviewed international journals and speaks at local and international meetings. She is the founding chairman of Oculoplastics Interest Group.

6. Dr Vanessa Naseem Mansurali

Consultant Ophthalmologist and Oculoplastic Surgeon

Island Hospital, Penang.

Dr Vanessa received Oculoplastic training in Rotterdam Eye Hospital, Holland; National University Hospital, Singapore and Hospital Serdang. She established oculoplastic service in General Hospital Penang and was a recipient of Excellence Awards in MOH and Scholarship for fellowship, NUH, Singapore. She has done research and authored papers on the uniqueness of East Asian eyelids. She is the vice Chairman of Oculoplastics Interest Group.

7. Dr Ho Shu Fen

Consultant Ophthalmologist and Oculoplastic Surgeon

Tun Hussein Onn National Eye Hospital, KPJ Ipoh, Hospital Fatimah Ipoh

Dr Ho received oculoplastic training in Moorfields Eye Hospital, London, Leicester Royal Infirmary and Hospital Serdang. She is a recipient of AIDAB (Australia International Developmental Assistance Bureau) scholarship. She won prizes for posters and paper in oculoplastics in national Meeting in UK, published papers in peer reviewed international journal and presented in international Meeting. She previously established oculoplastic practice in HRPB Ipoh. She is the secretary of Oculoplastics Interest Group.

8. Dr Tsiang Ung

Consultant Cataract and Oculoplastic Surgeon

Paediatric Ophthalmologist & Strabismologist

International Specialist Eye Center, Penang

Dr Tsiang is one of few subspecialists in Malaysia who is qualified both in Oculoplastic Surgery and Pediatric Ophthalmology and Strabismus. She underwent her ophthalmic training in Cambridge, Southampton and Sheffield before obtaining her CCT from Royal College of Ophthalmology London. Her higher subspecialty training were undertaken at Royal Hallamshire Hospital, Sheffield, Sheffield Children Hospital and Royal Manchester Hospital. She has published papers peer-reviewed journals and presented at various international meetings. She is the vice-secretary of Oculoplastic Interest Group.

9. Dr Fazliana Ismail.

Consultant Ophthalmologist and Oculoplastic Surgeon
University Malaya Medical Centre (UMMC)

Dr Fazliana is currently lecturer in University of Malaya and provide training to postgraduate doctor in UMMC. She does oculoplastic work in UMMC. She is a recipient of SLAI MOHE scholarship. She is the current treasurer in Oculoplastics Interest Group.

10. Dr Akmal Haliza binti Zamli

Consultant Ophthalmologist and Oculoplastic Surgeon and Head of Department Hospital Tengku Ampuan Afzan, Kuantan

Dr Akmal received her sub specialist training in Hospital Serdang and received Certificate of Completion in Fellowship Training (CCFT) conducted by MOH. She is the committee member of Oculoplastics Interest Group.

11. Dr Ong Chin Tuan

Consultant Ophthalmologist and Oculoplastic Surgeon
Beacon International Specialist Centre, Petaling Jaya

Dr Ong obtained MBBS (Hons) from University of Aberdeen. He received his fellowship in Southampton General Hospital, Southampton, UK, Salisbury District Hospital, UK and St James University Hospital Leeds, Leeds, UK. He is one of the few oculoplastics surgeon in Malaysia who is proficient with endoscopic DCR.

